Champagne and Sparkling

This is a wine that bares its soul like no other - a soul that “dances in the bottle” wrote the poet Charles Baudelaire in Les Fleurs du Mal. Now joyful, now sad, now powerful, now graceful, Champagne can be exuberant one moment and hushed the next. It can be full bodied or delightfully spirited.

White Wine

Bourgogne France

Burgundy grapes are revered by many but never precisely replicated elsewhere. These wines are vinified dry and known for their flavours of green apple, lemon, cream, grilled notes, toast, vanilla and more. The unique combination of tradition, climate and terrain allows Chardonnay to reign.

White Wine

Italy, Germany, Austria and Spain

Europe really nails whites, we reckon, because it isn't afraid to hold back the fruit and shine a light on minerality and freshness. Dryness and elegance is often the key. Even in richer/sweeter wines, like aged Spanish or German Riesling, their whites are often marked by a balance, restraint and sense of place that is quintessentially - and enviably - European.
